Bulletin for All TSA Employees – 12/28/2018

Furlough Information Available on HCAccess

Transportation Security Administration (TSA) employees are reminded that information regarding the Federal Government shutdown and its impact on the TSA workforce can be found on the TSA HCAccess website at the link here. The website provides detailed furlough information including steps employees should take during the shutdown, unemployment compensation information, payroll processing instructions and more. The website will be updated as new information unfolds, so employees are encouraged to visit it regularly for the most current information.
