FEHB FAQs

I AM ALREADY ENROLLED IN FEHB. CAN I CONTINUE WITH MY EXISTING PLAN IN 2015?

You may continue your existing plan, but please be aware that a number of FEHB carriers are making significant changes to their plans for 2015, including plan terminations and service area reductions. To view these changes, go to <http://www.opm.gov/insure/health/reference/hr.asp> and read the most current Benefits Administration Letter, Number 14-405. If your current plan is scheduled to terminate or discontinue coverage in your area, you will need to enroll in a new health insurance plan during Open Season. Failure to enroll during Open Season will leave you without FEHB coverage for 2015.

You may also want to read your plan's 2015 brochure to review any changes in benefits and premiums. Plan brochures are available at <http://www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance/healthcare/plan-information/>

IF I ENROLL OR CHANGE MY FEHB ELECTION DURING OPEN SEASON, WHEN WILL MY ELECTION BECOME EFFECTIVE?

The effective date of FEHB Open Season elections is January 11, 2015.

IF I ENROLL OR CHANGE MY FEHB ELECTION DURING OPEN SEASON, WHEN WILL DEDUCTIONS BEGIN?

HOW MUCH ARE FEHB PREMIUMS FOR 2015?

FEHB premiums vary depending on plan, carrier and coverage. For FEHB premiums go to www.opm.gov/insure/health/rates/index.asp.

WHAT FEHB PLANS ARE AVAILABLE IN MY AREA?

To view the plans available in your area go to www.opm.gov/insure/health/planinfo/index.asp.

WHAT IS FEHB PREMIUM CONVERSION?

Premium conversion allows you to pay for your FEHB premiums on a pretax basis. This means that your FEHB premiums are deducted from your pay prior to taxes being withheld. Participation in premium conversion is automatic when you enroll in the FEHB program. During Open Season you may choose to waive participation in premium conversion, or if you had previously waived participation, you may re-enroll.

FEHB FAQs

IF I ENROLL IN FEHB DURING OPEN SEASON, CAN I CANCEL MY ENROLLMENT AT ANYTIME?

You can only cancel at anytime if you have waived enrollment in premium conversion. Otherwise, you may only cancel enrollment during Open Season or if you have a Qualifying Life Event (QLE). For information about QLEs, go to www.opm.gov/insure/health/planinfo/qle.asp.

WHAT TYPE OF COVERAGE OPTIONS DOES FEHB OFFER?

The coverage options offered by FEHB are:

- Self and Family

WHO IS CONSIDERED AN ELIGIBLE FAMILY MEMBER UNDER THE FEHB PROGRAM?

Children	Effect of ACA
Under age 26	Children are covered under their parent's Self and Family enrollment up to age 26.
Married Children	Married children (but NOT their spouse or their own children) are covered up to age 26.
Children with or eligible for employer-provided health insurance	Children who are eligible for or have their own employer-provided health insurance are eligible for coverage up to age 26.
Stepchildren	Stepchildren do not need to live with the enrollee in a parent-child relationship to be eligible for coverage up to age 26.

Foster Children	Foster children are eligible for coverage up to age 26. Contact the HRAccess Shared Service Center for additional information.

Children do not have to live with their parent, be financially dependent upon their parent or be students to be covered up to age 26. There is also no requirement that the child have prior or current insurance coverage. FEHB Program plans will send notice to all their enrollees of the coverage eligibility changes as a part of that plan's Open Season communications.

In cases where children have employer-provided health insurance and are covered under their parent's Self and Family enrollment, the children's employer-provided health insurance will be the primary payer. FEHB will be the secondary payer.
